

Lunch DIScussions
10 November 2022, 1-2 pm

Commercial Courts in Europe – Alternative to Arbitration?

Chambres Internationales at the Tribunal de Commerce were established in Paris in 2018, followed shortly thereafter by Commercial Courts in the Netherlands and Germany. These chambers are intended to make it more attractive for parties to bring major commercial law and international disputes before a state court. After a few years in practice, it is time to revisit the development. Are new alternatives to arbitration evolving in Europe?

The Lunch DIScussions will be held in English.
