

We cordially invite you to another edition of our online event series, "Lunch Lectures - International Arbitration Abroad". During a joint video desk lunch, our speakers will report on their experiences with international arbitration proceedings in jurisdictions around the globe and share exciting insights.

Of course, the social aspect of a lunch break is not to be neglected! There will be ample time to get to know each other in small groups and to exchange views on arbitration, cuisine, or other exciting topics in a relaxed atmosphere.

Lunch Lecture #6: South Africa

Datum: 25 April 2023, 12:30 – 13:30 Uhr
Venue: Online (Dial-in information will be sent shortly before the event)

Speakers: Emilia Onyema, SOAS University of London, London
Raphael Höll, Oppenländer, Stuttgart

Registration:

Please register by 24 April 2022 at sabine.kalinowski@gleisslutz.com.

CULINARY NOTE:

To set the culinary mood for the Lunch Lecture, we asked Emilia:

What is typical for (South) African cuisine?

This varies but lots of meat based dishes (I am not South African)

What is your personal favourite?

Plantain or rice with different types of sauces – typical West African dishes.